

We at the Wall Street Synagogue note with sadness the passing of the mother of our respected colleague and very devoted daily worshipper

Michael Kaplan

of Edison, New Jersey

For whom our House of Prayer has been for many years a Makom Kovoah---an established locus for daily Torah study and prayers. We extend our sympathies to him and his entire family. May they be consoled from on High among the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.
